
Leave-one-conversation-out: the model scoring a conversation never saw it in training. Bounds the headroom of a learned decision policy; not deployable, since a live agent has no future questions.